

We learn that Chief Justice Dunn of this Territory, in a fit of delirium tremens, jumped from the upper window of a two story house, and fractured his leg—his case is considered very severe. —Milwaukee Sentinel.

A BRIG SUNK.—We learn from the book of the Exchange, that as the steamboat Charleston, Penoyer, bound to New York via Saturday night Nov. 8th, she ran into the bar of the Charleston, she struck her abut the Fore Channel, on the harbor side, cutting her down, and the stem of the boat entered the dock about three feet and cut within four or five planks of the garboard streak—the brig flared immediately. The seamen saved nothing but what they had on. Fortunately the cabin was on deck, which enabled the captain to save his chronometers, charts, &c.

The Charleston took the brig in tow, and brought her to the flats at Newcastle, and ran ashore at high water, within a short distance of the Pier.

The L. was from Charleston with a cargo of rice, cotton, &c. and bound to this city. The cotton kept the brig from sinking. A part of the cargo and vessel was insured in this city, and a part in Charleston—on the brig $11,000 was insured. —Con. & Eng.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.—Mr. H. H. Snelling, of Detroit, gives notice that he will commence the publication, on the 15th inst., of an agricultural paper adapted to the wants of the farmers of this state. It should be extensively circulated. —Pontiac Herald.

MISS FRANCES WRIGHT.—Lectured last evening on the "duty of American citizens at the coming election." The administration has called in the aid of Radicalism, Agrarianism and Infidelity. Is there any sober citizen, any honest man, any true-hearted patriot, willing to battle under such a banner. —Morning Courier and New York Enquirer.

"I take no interest in politics." Then you would make a very good Russian serf, but are not fit to be an American citizen. —Con. & Eng.

The wheat which was on board of the schooner, lost on Wednesday night, belongs to Mr. Kempshall of Rochester; the flour to a merchant at Cleveland. —Buffalonian.

A magnificent new packet named the Roscius has been added to the Liverpool line. She is 1100 tons burthen, and is said to be the best ultra of naval architecture. —Buffalonian.
